John Henley

Funeral services were held in St. John's Catholic church in Groton, at 10:00 a. m., Saturday, for John Henley, 77, a former County Commissioner of Claremont, who died on December 7, of bronchial pneumonia.

The Rev. Fr. E. J. Coyne officiated and burial was in the Groton cemetery.

Mr. Henley was born October 12, 1872, at Hubbardston, Mich., and homesteaded in Brown county early in life. He had resided in Brown county 52 years.

He was united in marriage with Lottie M. Slater on February 15, 1899. In recent years Mr. and Mrs. Henley retired from their farming operations near Claremont and had made their home in Aberdeen.

Surviving are his widow, three sons, Howard of Putney, John of Newark, and Percy of Claremont; six grandchildren; three sisters, Mayme McCracken and Katherine Sprague, of Lansing, Mich., and Ella Roach of Hubbardston, Mich., and a brother, Tom, at Lanesburg, Mich.

A. Paetznick of Groton was in charge of funeral arrangements.
